Invited Speaker

Professor Oleh Havrylyshyn was born in 1943 in Chortkiw, Ukraine. He completed his BA at Queen’s University, Canada, and gained his PhD from MIT, USA. He was a Professor of Economics at Toronto University and the Joint Vienna Institute and Queen’s University and George Washington University, as well as a Visiting Professor at the University Libre de Bruxelles (1981-1982) and Geneva Institute of International Studies (1986-1987). After retirement from the IMF in June 2007, where he served as Deputy Director of the EUR II Department (responsible for countries of the FSU) and Alternate Executive Director of the IMF Board of Directors, he is currently an independent consultant and researcher as well as Senior fellow at CASE Research Institute in Warsaw. Prof. Havrylyshyn served as a Deputy Minister of Finance and International Affairs in the first Ukrainian government, and after Maidan he became an economic advisor to the Presidential Administration of Ukraine. Most recently, Prof. Havrylyshyn prepared the “Background Review of Reforms since Independence.” Prof. Havrylyshyn has written many articles and several books on the issues of post-communist transition and institutions. Currently he is writing a book on his personal experiences over 25 years of transition as an academic, government advisor, senior official of the Ukrainian government, senior official at the IMF and consultant to various international organisations.
