

OFFERS OF ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT FROM INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE ACADEMIC COMMUNITY

FOR STUDENTS, DOCTORAL CANDIDATES AND RESEARCHERS AFFECTED BY THE WAR IN UKRAINE

CONTACT PERSONS AT HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY

Early-career researchers and experienced scientists:

Early-career researchers and experienced scientists affected by the war in Ukraine can turn to the Research Division with any questions they may have about their stay and work in Heidelberg. The team will be happy to advise you personally, by email or by phone.

Contact:

Dr Günther R. Mittler

Seminarstraße 2, 69117 Heidelberg

Tel. +49 6221 54-12620

guenther.mittler@zuv.uni-heidelberg.de

Students:

Students affected by the war in Ukraine can turn to the International Relations Division, department of advisory and support services for international students, with any questions about their stay and study course in Heidelberg. The team will be happy to advise you personally, by email, by phone or video regarding all questions about financing your studies, residence permit, the different administrative matters (applying for leave of absence, reregistering etc.) and any other questions that concern you.

Contact:

Ms Ulrike Riedling

Tel. +49 6221 54-12720

ulrike.riedling@zuv.uni-heidelberg.de

In-person consultation hours without prior appointment: Tuesday and Thursdays, from 10am to 12 noon,
University Administration "Carolinum", Seminarstraße 2, Room 30

Online consultation hours without prior appointment:
Wednesdays from 1.30pm to 3.30pm, Fridays from 10am to 12 noon
<https://heiconf.uni-heidelberg.de/ywqx-4amz-t9gp-ktc2>
(access code: donator uncoated squall game seventy)

Doctoral candidates:

The Graduate Academy offers a wide range of support for doctoral candidates affected by the war in Ukraine.

Contact:
<https://www.graduateacademy.uni-heidelberg.de/> graduieretenakademie@uni-heidelberg.de

Counselling and psychological support

The Central Student Advice Office provides – free of charge – confidential individual counselling in person, by video or by phone. Counselling is also possible in small groups, on request. After the concern has been clarified, other services will be brought in, depending on the issue.

Contact:
Nathalie Blome
Tel.: +409 6221 54-5454
nathalie.blome@zuv.uni-heidelberg.de
Appointments can be made by email or by phone.

Further counselling units:

- Psychotherapeutic University Outpatient Clinic Tel. +49 6221 54-7643 hochschulambulanz@psychologie.uni-heidelberg.de
- Psychosocial Counselling Centre (PBS) Tel. +49 6221 54-3750
pbs@stw.uni-heidelberg.de
- Diaconal helpline
Tel. 0800 1110-111 (Prot.) Tel. 0800 1110-222 (Cath.) | 116123

FURTHER WAYS OF ASSISTING AND SUPPORTING

Germany

Walter Benjamin Programme of the German Research Foundation

Philipp Schwartz Initiative of the Humboldt Foundation

Chance for Science

DAAD Hilde Domin Programme Students at Risk

DAAD Support for Ukrainian students and researchers

The Bibliotheca Hertziana – Max Planck Institute for Art History

Baden-Württemberg Fund for Persecuted Scholars

German Archaeological Institute

Volkswagen Foundation

Vector Foundation

International Networks

Science for Ukraine

Scholars at risk network

Open Society University Network

ASEEES Network